

Day 9 – Cockington and Cream Tea

Our day at school started as usual and ended at 12:30. Then we had freetime to grab some lunch. After that we walked to Cockington. During the walk we all got really wet because off he waves. When we arrived there we went to the café where we ate a scone and drank some black tea with milk. After that we had again some freetime to look around and go into the shops where we could see glass art. Our freetime ended at 4:30 and we went back tot he beach where our coach was waiting.
